The University Coat of Arms

On 15 November 1909, the Faculty recommended to the Senate that the University of Alberta adopt the Provincial Coat of Arms as its emblem, with the addition of an open book superimposed upon the cross and the motto "Lux et Lex" (Light and Law). In January 1911, the present motto, "Quaecumque vera," was substituted for the originally proposed motto. In 1950, the form of the design was changed in keeping with the graphic style of the time, and a new description of the symbol was adopted.

In the 1980s, Dr John Schlosser, Chair of the Board of Governors, became concerned that the University of Alberta was using the provincial Coat of Arms without official heraldic authority. When Sandy Mactaggart became Chancellor in 1990, he started working with the Canadian Heraldic Authority in Ottawa to design a Coat of Arms which would be heraldically correct. He emphasized the importance of retaining the characteristics of the existing Arms of the University that have meant so much to generations of alumni, Faculty, and students.

Canada's Athabasca Herald, Mr Charles Maier, advised the University on the design of its Coat of Arms so it conforms to the traditional requirements of heraldic art. Since the middle ages, Coats of Arms have been regarded as honours conferred under the Sovereign's prerogative powers. In Canada, these powers are now exercised by the Governor General, who appoints heralds to provide the necessary professional expertise.

The new design was finalized in early 1994. It was presented to the University by His Excellency the Right Honourable Ramon John Hnatyshyn, Governor General of Canada, at Convocation on 13 June 1994.

The full Coat of Arms is displayed at ceremonial occasions, such as Convocation, and is used by the Chancellor, as titular head of the University.

The symbolism of the University's Armorial Bearings (Coat of Arms) is:

Shield: a representation of the topography of Alberta rendered in the colors of the University.

At the base is a prairie wheat field symbolizing Alberta's agricultural industry. The wavy gold line above suggests the hills and rivers of Alberta and, in particular, the setting of the University campus. The top of the shield is in gold and separated from the rest of the shield by a line suggesting the Rocky Mountains. The book of learning dominates the design.

Crest: a Grand-Duc D'Amérique, or Great Horned Owl, the provincial bird and accepted symbol of knowledge.

Supporters: the Pronghorn, taken from the Provincial Coat of Arms, and the golden bear, mascot of the University. Both wear collars of the University colours, as does the owl.

Compartment (base of the Coat of Arms): a grassy mound with wild roses, the floral emblem of Alberta.

Motto: Quaecumque vera – "Whatsoever Things Are True" (Phil 4:8)

Greetings to the Graduates

As we go through life, our progress is marked by special moments when we turn corners and new horizons open out before us. This convocation of scholars celebrates the happy observance of such an important turning point in your lives. The ceremony is steeped in customs that have been passed down to us over the centuries. It is sedate, colorful, traditional, and meaningful. We hope you will enjoy the experience and will participate in the goodwill that permeates a day to be remembered.

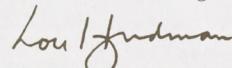

By conferring its degrees, the University confirms that you have successfully fulfilled a rigorous course of study and have earned the right to enter into the collegiality of educated women and men. Be proud of what you have done, and be grateful for what the University has done for you.

Universities began as small collections of scholars who worked together to preserve and advance knowledge. Students came to study with them and, in due course, an administrative structure arose to provide system and recognition for those studies. This ancient structure is preserved at the University of Alberta, with the faculty and the students providing the core of the University's purpose: teaching and the advancement of knowledge. The faculty's task is facilitated by their colleagues in the academic staff, the Faculty Service Officers, the Administrative Professional Officers and the Librarians, and the University's dedicated support staff.

The faculty, numbering some 1,600, is responsible for creating programs of study, for teaching, and for evaluating the learning of the student body, both undergraduate and Understand that the University of Alberta is not just the campus which you know so well. It is everything that our graduates of yesterday, today, and tomorrow accomplish to make our world a better place to live in. Today you join a worldwide community of alumni, a hundred thousand strong, whose support and interest is vital to the enhancement of the quality and the value of the degrees which you receive today. Keep in touch, and never forget the University that nurtured the mind you use every day. You entered to grow in wisdom. You leave the better to serve your community and yourselves.

Welcome and Congratulations.

Louis D Hyndman
Chancellor

graduate. In addition, faculty members are responsible for the scholarly reputation of the University by preserving and sharing knowledge and by pursuing new ideas and knowledge through their research.

The faculty and staff congratulate you, the graduates, on the successful completion of your present studies which is recognized by the degrees to which you are admitted today. Your achievement deserves praise. We hope your present knowledge provides a sound base for an education which will continue throughout a rewarding life. We would remind you of the advice given to graduands by Honorary Degree Recipient Dr Tommy Banks: "Try to be a good person. You will be amazed how rewarding it is."

Congratulations from the Faculty and Staff!

I am delighted to join with your families and friends in congratulating you on the successful completion of your studies. You have reached this important milestone through a great deal of effort and hard work. You can be proud of your accomplishments.

The University of Alberta is one of the top universities in Canada. We look to this fine institution to be a leader in many fields – in teaching, in research, in creating the highest standards of advanced education and knowledge.

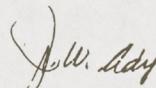

As graduates of the University, you take with you an education that will open doors and create exciting new possibilities. You have been given the opportunity to become more self-reliant, capable and caring. You have been given the opportunity to make a contribution. I encourage you to use the knowledge you have gained to your best advantage.

For many of you, convocation may mark the end of your formal program of studies. I sincerely hope, however, that you will continue to pursue learning throughout your lives. In the words of the American clergyman, Ralph W Sockman:

"The longer the island of knowledge, the longer the shoreline of wonder."

On behalf of Premier Klein and the Government of Alberta, I wish you all success and good fortune in the future.

Sincerely,

Jack W Ady, Minister of Advanced Education and Career Development

University Mace and Ceremonial Chairs

The University of Alberta Mace was designed and crafted specifically for the University as a gift from Dr Francis Phillip Galbraith, Chancellor of the University of Alberta from 1964 - 1970. It was presented by his son, Michael Galbraith, on behalf of his father on May 26, 1970.

Among its elements are: the Star of Saint Thomas Aquinas, the Patron Saint of Scholars; the Wild Rose of Alberta; the Maple Leaf; and the separate charges which make up the University's Emblem. The University motto "Quaecumque Vera" ("Whatsoever Things Are True" Phil 4:8) encircles the staff. The Mace is made of sterling silver which was rhodium plated after the insertion of the various enamelled shields which make up its elements. A special electro-plate process was used to apply 24 carat gold to other parts of the Mace.

It was intended that the Mace should be modern in appearance but with medieval origins. The preponderance of visual weight at the top of the staff and the rather complex section through the metalwork at this point are reminiscent of the use of the mace as a weapon, defensive or aggressive. The Mace is carried before the Chancellor, or Vice-Chancellor, in procession and rests on its stand in full view of the assembly during Convocation. Centuries ago the Mace was a symbol of authority over life and death. Today it represents power – but the power of knowledge and the importance of the University in the community.

The Chancellor's Chair was presented to the University of Alberta as a gift from the 1922 graduating class. It is made of solid oak with a padded leather back and seat. Above the padded leather back is carved the University motto "Quaecumque Vera" together with the class year, 1922, and the University emblem.

In 1987, the family and friends of Dr Charles Malcolm Macleod, Chair of the Board of Governors from 1950 to 1966, presented a memorial gift to the University of an oak stand for the University of Alberta Mace and two additional chairs for use by the President and the Chair of the Board of Governors at Convocation.

Convocation History

In the eleventh century, a new vitality quickened all aspects of the civilization of Western Europe. The creative forces thus unleashed soon found expression in new institutions, and of these the university bids fair to be the most enduring. The modern university is the lineal descendant of the university of the Middle Ages. Its purposes and organization, even much of its ceremonial, are medieval in origin.

The medieval university was originally called a studium generale, that is, a place of learning to which teachers and students from anywhere resorted. The first studia were at Salerno, Bologna, and Paris. These came into existence spontaneously and developed through the twelfth century as the needs of the time and their inner necessities dictated. In the thirteenth century these spontaneous associations crystallized into guilds or corporations endowed by Church and State with specific privileges which guaranteed the internal autonomy necessary for the vocation of study. To these corporations was increasingly applied the word universitas denoting the entire group of those responsible for the transmission of higher learning and the pursuit of knowledge.

By the beginning of the fourteenth century, two forms of university organization had appeared. At Bologna, which was primarily a higher school of canon and civil law to which came men experienced in ecclesiastical and secular administration, the control of the studium generale passed to the students; hence Bologna was a universitas scholarum. On the other hand in Paris and Oxford, whose dominant faculty was the Faculty of Arts, the studium emerged under the direction of a guild of teachers, a universitas magistrorum. Through its own officials, notably the chancellor (once symbol of external control and by now of internal autonomy), the guild of teachers developed its courses of instruction, administered its own affairs and admitted to its company only those who had met its intellectual standards. The University of Alberta stands in the tradition of Paris and Oxford.

Originally the goal of the medieval student was certification by the guild of teachers that he also was qualified to teach (the licentia docendi). With the passage of time the student's progress through the curriculum was marked by ceremonies which signified his successful attainment of a certain level (gradus or in modern language, degree) of competence. The Bachelor had completed his apprenticeship in the Faculty of Arts. The Master was now qualified to teach in that Faculty and was thus incorporated into the universitas magistrorum. The Doctor was one who, having obtained the mastership, had successfully completed the curriculum of one of the "higher" faculties (in the Middle Ages, law, medicine, and theology) and was now qualified to teach in those faculties. Inevitably the degrees of the universitas did more than admit their holders to the teaching profession. They served the wider social purpose of demonstrating their holders' fitness to serve the entire medieval community.

Today's ceremony stems from the medieval tradition. The procession of the guild of teachers, whose solemn assembly, or convocation, is the modern equivalent of the medieval magna congregatio of all faculties, is lead by the Chancellor and the Chief Marshal carrying the mace, the symbol of the University's corporate authority. The academic gowns, hoods, and caps, once the sober, disciplined dress of secular clergy and teachers, declare in their various designs and colors the academic qualifications of the Faculty. The citations and presentations by the Faculty to the Chancellor attest to him and to society the degree of proficiency attained by the students of the University. There follows a visible and public act whereby the universitas magistrorum, acting through its Chancellor, confers upon the students the appropriate degree. It is the act, not a certificate, which constitutes the validity of the degree bestowed. More, the formula, "I admit you" and the placing of the students' hands within the hands of the Chancellor and his associates, bind the students in the appropriate degree to the universitas magistrorum. The students thereafter bear for all time the mark of their association with this University. They have received what the University has been and presently is. Since they bear in themselves the promise of the future, they are what the University hopes to be. For all its solemnity, convocation is a joyous occasion.

The history of academic dress reaches far back into early days of the oldest universities. A statute of 1321 required that all "Doctors, Licentiates, and Bachelors" of the University Coimbra wear gowns. In England, in the second half of the 14th century, the statutes of certain colleges forbade "excess apparel" and prescribed the wearing of a long gown. It is still a controversial question as to whether academic dress finds its sources chiefly in ecclesiastical or in civilian dress. Gowns may have been counted necessary for warmth in the unheated buildings frequented by medieval scholars. Hoods seem to have served to cover the tonsured head until superseded for that purpose by the skull cap. This was itself displaced by a headdress more or less like one or another of those now recognized as "academic." [The mortar board, the hard, square cap commonly used as academic headdress today, evolved from the softer, more flexible "square cap" that was introduced in England in about 1490 and is named for the square board on a handle used by stone masons for holding the mixed mortar to be applied to walls.] Both Cambridge and Oxford have made academic dress a matter of university control to the extent of even its minor details and have repeatedly issued revised regulations. In Laudian days in Oxford it was prescribed that any tailor who departed from authorized design "even by a nail's breadth" in the making of any article of collegiate costume was to be punished by the vice-chancellor of the university.

Academic dress at the University of Alberta generally follows the prescription of Cambridge University in the design of the gown, and that of Oxford University in the design of the hood. The following page provides a detailed description of the academic dress at this institution.

In addition to the apparel worn by holders of degrees conferred by the University of Alberta, a collection of apparel specific to particular offices has also been developed. The President of the University wears a green gown faced with gold braid trim and lining and a green cap with a gold tassel. The Chancellor and Chancellors Emeriti wear gowns of teal blue with silver trim and black caps with silver tassels. The gowns of the senior officials bear an embroidered emblem of the University. University Governors and Senators wear stoles bearing the emblem of the University over their gowns: gold for Governors and green for Senators. The University Registrar wears a green gown with gold trim on the sleeves.

Graduates and staff of the University of Alberta who wish to purchase their own academic apparel are invited to contact: Harcourt's Limited, 26-28 Duncan Street, Toronto, ON, M5V 2B9. Order forms may be obtained by contacting the Convocation Officer in the Office of the Registrar and Student Awards.

Honorary Degree Recipient

Jake Superstein, CM, is president of Alexandra Petroleums Ltd of Edmonton. He entered the business world in 1935 when he, along with his father and brothers, established the Edmonton Produce Company. Mr Superstein served the company in numerous capacities including president, until he sold the business in 1967.

Active and well known in the community, Mr Superstein served for 27 years with Saint Mary's Salesian School, first as a director and later as chair of the Advisory Board. He has extensive involvement with health care associations including serving for 10 years as a member of the Advisory Board of the General Hospital and as honorary patron of the Society for Children's Oncology Family Services (devoted to fundraising for Ronald McDonald House). He has had a long interest in education, serving as honorary chair of the successful fundraising campaign for a new building at the Catholic University in Lublink Poland and as a member of the University of Alberta Board of Governors for six years. Mr Superstein is also a member of the Beth Israel Synagogue.

His volunteer service has been recognized with a number of honours including the Medal of Merit from the Knights Hospitaller Order of Saint John of Jerusalem (a Christian Order of Chivalry devoted to humanitarian work and education). He was presented with the city's "Silver Ribbon Award" in recognition of his commitment to the quality of life in Edmonton. In 1987, Mr Superstein was appointed a Member of the Order of Canada.

The Senate is donating the following volume to the Bruce Peel Special Collections Library to commemorate the awarding of the honorary degree to Jake Superstein:

Cynthia Ozick. Epodes: First Poems. Prints by Sidney Chafetz. Athens, Ohio, Logan Elm Press, 1991.

No 90 of 124 copies on handmade paper, signed by author and artist, housed in a Willow Wood Box.

Ozick is a major New York writer of short stories, novels and essays; a wise, philosophical writer sensitive to the nuances and wit of English, Hebrew and Yiddish. This splendid volume is her only collection of poems. "If they count for anything at all, it is on behalf of the bruising and thwartings and insatiable wantings of the young woman who once wrote them in the fever of her desire," she writes. Originally published in prestigious magazines when Ozick was in her twenties and thirties, the poems are now gathered together for the first time. This collection is a significant addition to the Peel Library's holdings in modern literature and the book arts.

Graduates

The list of candidates for degrees, diplomas, and certificates appearing herein is subject to such corrections, with respect to additions, deletions, and changes, as may be necessary. The information as presented is current as of the program printing deadline. Graduates attending the ceremony are presented to the Chancellor alphabetically, beginning with those graduates receiving their degrees "with distinction" or "with first class honors." The winner of the most prestigious award in each Faculty, if attending, is presented first.

The Presentation

The Dean of the Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research asks the candidates for degrees to rise, and presents them with these words:

"Eminent Chancellor and President, on behalf of the Faculties, I present to you these scholars and ask that they be pledged and admitted to the degrees to which they are entitled."

The Pledge

The President then addresses the candidates in these words:
"Do you promise faithfully to observe and loyally to maintain the statutes, customs, privileges, and liberties of this, your University? Do you solemnly promise to conduct yourself in all things loyally and faithfully to the honor of your University, the encouragement of learning, and the good of your country?"

Each candidate replies:

"These things I pledge myself to do."

The Admission

The Chancellor then addresses the candidates in these words:

"By virtue of the authority vested in me by the Legislature of this Province, and with the consent of this University, I admit you to the degrees to which you are entitled, and invest you with all the powers, rights, and privileges pertaining to such degrees, and I charge you to use them for the glory of God and the honor of your country."

Presentation of Graduates

The graduates are presented individually to the Chancellor in the order of seniority of their degrees. Graduate degrees are presented first (Doctors, then Masters), followed by undergraduate degrees according to the establishment date of each faculty and program. Graduates receiving their degrees "With Distinction" are presented before other graduates of the same program. At the discretion of the Faculty, the notation "With Distinction" or "With First Class Honors" is inscribed on the permanent record and graduation parchment of a candidate for any degree (except graduate degrees), if the candidate has obtained a grade-point average of 7.5 or higher according to the regulations of the program and Faculty.

Gary McPherson is well known in Alberta for his work as Chair of the Premier's Council on the Status of Persons with a Disability, a position he has held since 1988. The Council spans 600 organizations whose mandates focus on affirmative action towards all issues which are important to people with a disability.

Mr McPherson has been associated with the University of Alberta for a number of years. He is an adjunct professor in the Faculty of Physical Education and Recreation and was an assistant director of the Rick Hansen Centre. Last year his contributions to Canadian society were recognized when he was awarded the Robert Jackson Award for Outstanding Contributions to the Canadian Wheelchair Sports Association. In 1993, he was inducted into the Alberta Sports Hall of Fame and received the King Clancy Award for Outstanding Contributions to Canadians with Disabilities.

Although severely handicapped since the age of nine, Mr McPherson has made innumerable contributions to amateur sport in Canada. He was the first general manager of the Alberta Northern Lights Wheelchair Basketball Society; president and co-founder of the Challenge Cup Wheelchair Basketball Association 1985-88; and executive director of the Canadian Wheelchair Sports Association, 1974-78. Mr McPherson was also chair of the Alberta leg of Rick Hansen's Man in Motion World Tour and the Ombudsman for the city's Disabled Adult Transportation System (DATS).

The Senate is donating the following volume to the Bruce Peel Special Collections Library to commemorate the awarding of the honorary degree to Gary McPherson:

Thomas C Donaldson, ed. Reports on Indians Taxed and Not Taxed... Washington, 1894.

This extraordinary census volume by the US Department of the Interior is one of the most important and exhaustive treatments of the American Indian in the 19th century. Indians had not been considered in detail in previous censuses, and this study, prepared with scrupulous attention, includes status reports on life on the reservations, schooling, employment, and many other topics. Lavishly illustrated with maps and photos, the colour plates of Indians are by noted artists, and are highly prized. This volume will be a very useful addition to the Peel Library's Javitch Collection of materials on North and South American Indians.

The list of candidates for degrees, diplomas, and certificates appearing herein is subject to such corrections, with respect to additions, deletions, and changes, as may be necessary. The information as presented is current as of the program printing deadline. Graduates attending the ceremony are presented to the Chancellor alphabetically, beginning with those graduates receiving their degrees "with distinction" or "with first class honors." The winner of the most prestigious award in each Faculty, if attending, is presented first.

This Convocation Program is printed on recycled paper containing at least 55% recycled fiber including 15% post-consumer waste paper.

If you can, please share this program with a companion. Then, if you do not take it home, please leave it (in good repair) on the table outside the doors as you exit the auditorium. This will help us ensure that someone else can use it on another day of Convocation, and subsequently conserve paper.

Thank you for your assistance.
